

Guard, Jesa Rada, looking for a passing lane in her game against the Vikings Nov. 9. This year, Rada decided to add soccer to her already packed schedule which includes being a full-time student and playing basketball for the college.